STORY

Tumbling into Trouble

Pop Star was always a nice place to be.
Kirby napped on a cloud quite peacefully.
But he suddenly woke as Waddle Dee scurried by.
Then King Dedede – what a suspicious guy!

They were headed for Dreamland,
Kirby's own home.
But what were they doing? He didn't quite know.
Kirby hopped on a Warp Star to go check it out,
But when he reached Dreamland, he let out a shout!

"No stars in the sky? What's going on?"
King Dedede stole them, and now they're all gone!
He must have been jealous of that lovely night sky.
Who can get the stars back? Kirby must try!

Saving and Game Over

Never give up!

1

Saving Your Game

Your game will be saved automatically each time you clear a course.

Note: Do not turn your Game Boy Color system OFF until the Saving Screen disappears. If you do, your game data could be corrupted!

There are four courses in each level!

2

Losing a Life

When Kirby's vitality reaches zero, you will lose one of your remaining lives. If you have any lives left after that, you will restart the course from the last gate Kirby passed through. If Kirby hasn't passed through any gates on that course, you will have to restart from the beginning of the course.

3

Continuing Your Game

When you have lost all of your lives, your game will be over. You will then be able to choose to quit the game or continue. If you choose to continue, you must start at the beginning of the last course you played.

Note: When your game is over, you must start from the very beginning of the last course you played, even if Kirby passed through a gate on that course.

One Red Star is hidden in every course—see if you can collect them all. The percentage you have collected will be shown on the Select File Screen, so keep playing until you've collected 100%!

Note: Red and Blue Stars will take effect when you reach the end of the course. If you lose a life before you reach the end of the course, you'll lose any Red and Blue Stars you've collected.

This is one tough crew!

Waddle Dee

This little guy will be found throughout the courses. Each time Kirby touches him, some of Kirby's vitality will be taken away.

These baddies will swoop down at Kirby anytime he gets near. Rolling under mesh floors is a good way to get by safely.

These enemies will blast cannonballs at Kirby, but he can fire right back with an Air Blast!

Bronto Burts

These meanies patrol the skies relentlessly, but some well-aimed Air Blasts will have them seeing stars!

Orbservors

To take out one of these bad guys, aim for the eye and jump.

King Dedede

Kirby's archenemy can be taken out with a quick cannon attack.

These mini-games will test your tilting techniques!

Tips and Tricks

With these moves, you'll be on a roll in no time!

These are just a few of the tricky techniques you'll need to use to recover all of Dreamland's stars.

JUMP!

1

Racking Up Points

- The more Red Stars you collect in a single jump, the more points you'll earn.
- Hidden bonus areas are packed with Yellow Star Pieces.

2

Discovering Hidden Secrets

- Different Bumpers will bounce Kirby in different directions.
- When Kirby flips, Blockbots and Bumpers will change colors.

- When four or more enemies are on the screen at the same time, flip them all over to turn them into Blue Star Pieces.

3

Earning Extra Lives

There are several ways to earn an extra life:

- Score 50,000 points.
- Collect 50 Yellow Star Pieces.
- Hit Bumpers repeatedly without stopping.
- Collect all seven Red Star Pieces on a single course without losing a life.
- Land a perfect bull's-eye at the end of a course.

4

Getting More Time

In addition to collecting Stopwatches, you can also increase your time limit in the following ways:

- Pass through the gate in the middle of a course. The amount of time that you will gain will be different for each course.
- Finish a course with time left over. The time you have left will be added to your time for the next course. If you lose a life or your game ends, however, you will restart with only the course's standard amount of time.

5

Maximizing Your Time Bonus

Before you defeat the boss at the end of a level, you'll earn a bonus based on the amount of time you have left.

6

Additional Tips

- Kirby can sometimes become invincible by repeatedly hitting Bumpers or bouncing on Boost Pads.
- Some Bumpers have secrets hidden beneath them.
- You can speed up and slow down moving Clouds by tilting your Game Boy Color system.
- Even after you've cleared all the levels, there may still be another secret to find...!?!?
